Welcome to "The Olive-Vine" the new D'Avolio eNewsletter

Edition 2012.1

Welcome to D'Avolio Olive Oils, Vinegars and more newest arrival.

Our newest arrival has just been released. Best of all it is absolutely free! D'Avolio is proud to announce its new monthly eNewsletter called "The Olive-Vine"

Since June 2010 we have been extremely busy opening our stores starting in Lewiston, NY then moving into Buffalo, Williamsville and now East Amherst. We have not stopped long enough to catch-our-breath much less design and start publishing our eNewsletter.

The eNewsletter will be focused on bringing you the latest new arrivals, great tasting recipes, news and details on events that D'Avolio will be part of. Spread the word and share with your friends and family that to receive the eNewsletter just complete the simple sign-up form found on the home page of davolios.com.

February is National Heart Awareness Month

February is National Heart Disease Awareness Month and including Olive Oils in your diet is a perfect way to begin living a healthy, active lifestyle.

A number of conditions are affected by heart disease, including, but not limited to, arrhythmia, heart attack, diabetes, high blood pressure, cholesterol, cardiovascular conditions of childhood and stroke. By living a healthy lifestyle complete with great nutrition, physical activity and stress management, you can decrease your chances of having to deal with heart disease.

D'Avolio offers Extra Virgin Olive Oils and products that enhance a healthy lifestyle. Please visit our collection of articles on the benefits of Olive Oils. Looking for recipes? We have a vast selection from desserts to main meals.

According to the American Heart Association, nutrition is essential for your family's heart health. AHA provides guidelines toward good health through recipes, healthy cooking tips, secrets to heart-smart shopping and much more.
